There will be text like "Hi, what's up?". There will be other text like "What's up. Thanks for your question. Can we help? I want to return the occurrences as [1] and [3]. I tried the regex_replace but doesn't work. A: A one-liner: CREATE TEMP TABLE foo (val VARCHAR(256)); INSERT INTO foo VALUES ('Hi, what's up? What's up. Thanks for your question. Can we help? This will not be used'); SELECT val, patindex('@[a-zA-Z0-9]+@', val) as patindex, LEN(val) - patindex('@[a-zA-Z0-9]+@', val) + 1 as num_patches FROM foo; This returns: val

What's New in the?

Coral Reef 3D is a beautiful wallpaper with fully 3D fish and plants that float around you The background is a pretty ship that floats around you, and the fishes around you are 3D, and move around you. You can also control the animation speed, and the background color and transparency. You can also select a random seed to play with the background of the app. There is also an option to mute the music and background sound. The images are of a very high quality, and the depth of the background is very realistic. Coral Reef 3D Screensaver is also easy to install and can be set to your liking right from your desktop, no extra setup needed. What's new in this version: Ratings and Reviews 3.4 out of 5 15 Ratings 15 Ratings stufball12 , 02/07/2017 Wish I can give it 5 stars The background is beautiful but I want to see it in action. The fish do swim around but I can never seem to get the image to change. stufball12 , 02/07/2017 Wish I can give it 5 stars The background is beautiful but I want to see it in action. Mdee06 , 10/12/2017 A very cool wallpaper As it says, it's a wallpaper with a 3d fish in it, that has a random background, that can be controlled in the settings. After downloading it, there were very few errors, and it did install smoothly. The only issue I had was that I couldn't get it to change, it would go to the default backdrop every time I went to screensaver.
