He is a pickpocket and thief who specialises in a dubious type of pickpocketing. Arguably his best-known work is The Artful Dodger from Oliver Twist, which was published in 1839. This also was the first of Dickens' novels to be published in chapters and to have a preface. The section from Chapter 2 entitled "The Artful Dodger's Story" was written by Dickens to be read as an afterword. In his preface Dickens said that he wrote the story to show the power of the spoken word over the written word, and to explain how a boy could be a thief. 3e33713323
