Fatal Twelve Mini Voice Drama Download Setupl I want to set an express check to be able to view each row of a table in internet explorer 8. I have a table with long sortable columns that are stacked on top of each other. In IE8 I want to be able to toggle the display of each row as I click. Firefox has view details which does not work at all. IE8 has the "view individual row" via the inspect tool (F12). I suspect the problem is with the CSS. I have a table with two columns, and I want it to be rightjustified. I also want it to be able to shrink if there's less room, so that the last column is not pushed off the right edge. I want to set twocolumns side-by-side with a margin between them. I want to set the left-margin of the first column to be the same as the right-margin of the second column. The left-margin of the second column should be negative. I want to set the left-margin and right- Occ13bf012
