Btw, I live in the US and to put things in perspective: these people are from places such as Kenya, Ghana, and Togo. Maybe I will try to replicate the results with a larger sample size. I agree. These are not like your average American black women. They have more cultural dominance. Again, this is my personal experience. I cannot always tell where one culture ends and another begins. "Vulnerability is a choice." You set your face on fire by asking him what his race. One of your comments said that you get most upset about "your fellow left-leaning black Americans". You demonstrate the same misguided attitude of pride that you accuse others of! You had best get used to it, because here at Booty Camp, we are about to dive into your culture.Q: Automatic device certification program for Android I got a new Android device here. It has an online unlock program. I would like to use it, however I don't have their app yet. My device is locked because it is connected to a NewID (aka O-lock), and my home router is locked via WPA2-Enterprise. Can I still use my phone with the NewID from NewID easily? Or does that NewID not have the same certification like the one I got from Google (which is a G Suite device)? A: The NewID is a physical device, so you would be using a certified device; just like when you replace a broken phone with a backup. More information about the certification process can be found in the End-user contract section. ORLANDO, Fla. — A Florida man dressed as a Joker has been arrested after he tried to rob an Orlando bank, saying he was wearing a clown costume and carrying a fake gun. "So, how can we compare presents while we don't know what Santa Claus is up to?" chimed in the child, who was occupied with looking at the floor. "We just do," said Blue. "Maybe he doesn't come in here at all. Maybe he's just my Dad. One of you go into the office and ask him how he found the perfect gift for my mom, and the other one might go ask him if he has a daughter." "Let's do it together," Blue suggested. "Okay," the two started walking toward the office, not even looking in that direction. "You go first. I'll go last." "Let's say I'm the first one to reach the office." "Yay!" Blue went straight to the office and knocked on the door. "Hello?" a voice called out from the other side. "Is anyone in here?" she asked. "Why are you asking?" "Oh, sorry. This is for the last office, right?" "No, this is the first one. Go and find the others." "Hey wait! I thought we were going together?" Blue's voice came through the door. "Sorry, I got confused. Come on, he's waiting for you." Blue opened the door slowly, and then walked into the office. It was a window office, with a bookshelf and a desk. There was a hat on top of a manila folder. "Oh, come in! No, no, I'm not him," a high pitched voice called out from the room. Blue opened the door and entered the office. The man was wearing glasses, a cap, and a tie. He was leaning on the desk with his head between his hands. "Yes, it's true. I'm not Santa Claus," he said. "I just wanted to check," she said. "My son always looks forward to hearing the story."
