Rescue teams continued to search the waters at Lake Havasu on Tuesday, 1 a.m. PT, for missing Herne Bay man Bradley Smith, 55. His daughter Debra lives on Epperson Parkway in Lake Havasu City. Police report: Dog attacked in Lake Havasu.. A spokesman for Lake Havasu city police said Smith had escaped with "minor injuries." Debra Smith, 48, was not hurt. "It's a very positive development, which I think is going to give us the best opportunity for recovery," Lake Havasu City Fire. on Food & Drug Administration (FDA) related issues with their products. Food safety has been the top priority for Dr. Kori Fraser, Vice President of Nutrition Programs at Lake Havasu City, Arizona. "There were several manufacturers that had many recalls, and when we came in, we brought those producers down to the minimum acceptable levels," Fraser said. The recalls included several canned pumpkin products, including Walmart's pumpkin-flavored pumpkin, pumpkin pie filling and chocolate pumpkin pie filling. FDA says products sold in the U.S. since 2005 contain the increased levels of lead. The agency issued a recall of the products in May. Affected products include the following: - Walmart's Pumpkin Chocolate Pumpkin Pie Filling. Costco's SunnyD Pumpkin Pie Filling with Vegetable Base. - Costco's Pumpkin Pie Filling with Vegetable Base and Pumpkin Flavor. - Walmart's Vegetable Base Pumpkin Pie Filling with Wholesale value of $0.29 per can. According to FDA, the potential for adverse health effects associated with the use of these products cannot be ruled out. A Consumer Product Safety Commission (CPSC) alert says these products were sold to consumers nationwide in five million cans. "You can be exposed to the levels of lead in these products if they are kept stored in their original packaging. "FDA is monitoring the recall, and the FDA recall notice (PDF) stated that these products are being recalled under the agency's authority to prevent products from being introduced into commerce that are adulterated, i.e., they did not comply with current good manufacturing practices," the alert states. According to FDA,
